WORK AT THE NEWPORT NEWS SHIP-YARD.

The New Battleships-- A Report Denied-Registration-Large White Majority-Judges and Clerks of Election-General Notes.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., May 13,-(Special.)-The scene at the ship-yard to-day has been entirely different from that of the past week. One week ago there were not 100 men at their posts of duty, and not a sound of any kind could be heard from within. This morning 2,000 of the former employees filed in the gate, and it the new battleships Kentucky and Kearsarge have arrived at the yard, and the men will begin work at once on the construction of the vessels. The report sent out from Norfolk that the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry-Dock Company was by no means sorry that the strike occurred when it did, owing to a delay in the arrival of the battleship material, is entirely without foundation, as the first of the cars arrived at the yard in the early part of last week, and work on the register for the spring election, and all ose names are not on the registrationbooks will have no voice in the matter of selecting municipal officers on the last Thursday of this month, A majority of the voiers of this month, A majority of the voiers of this city had registered be-fore, but that fact did not serve them this year, as a new registration was re-quired on account of the recent incorpo-ration of Newport News as a city. The books were open for the past week, and the voting contingent of the populace re-sponded very promptly to the repeated calls to register before the expiration of the stipulated time. The total white and colored voters of the city, as shown by the registrars' books, is as follows: First Ward, 181 white, 84 colored. Total, 255, Second Ward, 41 white, 437 colored. Total, Second Ward, 41 white, 437 colored. Total, 478. Third Ward, 136 white, 20 colored. Total, 156. Fourth Ward, 287 whote, 49 colored. Total, 427. Fifth Ward, 230 white, 7 colored. Total, 257. Sixth Ward, 187 white, 30 colored. Total, 217. Seventh Ward, 128 white, 0 colored. Total, 128. From the above it will be seen that there are 1,410 white, and 618 colored voters, making a total of 2,628.

MIDGES AND CLERKS.

JUDGES AND CLERKS. The Democratic Executive Committee has appointed the following judges of election and clerks, to serve at the primary election to be held on Saturday, he 16th instant: First Ward, George B. West and C. C. First Ward, George B. West and C. C. Miller, judges, and J. M. Turner, clerk; Third Ward, J. R. Gilliam and J. R. Bagby, judges, and R. L. Hargrove, clerk; Fourth Ward, H. L. Edmunds and E. Todd, judges, and E. F. Roberts, clerk; Fifth Ward, W. C. Stuart and W. E. Cottrell, judges, and A. H. Henley, clerk; Sixth Ward, W. H. King, Jr., and A. J. Fenton, judges, and Frank Gordon, cierk; Seventh Ward, D. McAviney and J. E. Godfrey, judges, and J. L. Green-E. Godfrey, judges, and J. L. Green-

The primary contest promises to be quife lively, as there are many candidates who have announced candidacy, subject to its action. Mayor W. A. Post, city-Treasurer J. M. Curtis, and Commonwealth's-Attorney J. K. M. Newton will have no opposition in the primary in their race for re-election. City-Sergeant E. W. Milstead is out for re-election, and will be opposed on Saturday by Constable R. S. Shields. B. S. Robinson and E. L. Herndon will enter the primary against Commissioner-of-the-Bewenue W. P. Ballard, the popular old "war horse"; and for Clerk of the Corporation Court "Doug" Smith will be opposed by Hon. Thomas Temple Powell. G. W. Crow and C. B. Edwards are the only candidates for High Constable, The primary contest promises to be G. W. Crow and C. B. Edwards are the only candidates for High Constable, subject to the primary. A large number of candidates for councilmen and fustices of the peace have also submitted their claims to the action of the primary. Treasurer J. M. Curtis has Mai factions of the parties, and will be re-elected in the general election, beyond a doubt. Mayer W. A. Post, who will have the strong supoprt of all the regular Democrats, and who will have no oppostillen from the Republicans, will have to compete with only one candidate in the general election—A. A. WILL REMAIN OUT. The Newport News Democratic Club, which has only been organized since the early part of the year, claims to have a membership of over 500, which, if true, makes it the largest Democratic organization in the city. It has maintained right along that the City Executive Committee, recently elected at ward tive Committee, recently elected at ward meetings, was not legally constituted, because Newport News, as a city, had not been designated by the Legislature as a portion of any congressional district, and that, such being the case, the legality Executive Committee, atill. County Executive Committee still old County Executive Committee still had the authority to engineer the Demo-eratic party in the spring election. For this reason it expressed its intention some time ago to remain out of the pri-mary election. A full set of candidates has been placed in the field, and the club's members seem confident that a fair portion of them will be elected to office. To further its interests, this or-ganization has begun the publication of omice. To intriner its interests, this organization has begun the publication of a campaign sheet, called "The Hornet."

EX-TREASURER INDICTED.

C. W. Wright, of Suffolk-The Amount Involved.

SUFFOLK, VA., May 13.—(Special.)— About 6 o'clock this evening the grand jury of Nansemond County Court presented three indictments against C. W. Wright, ex-Treasurer of the town of Suffolk, for felony. A capias, returnable to the July term of the court, was immediately issued, and put into the hands of Sheriff Baker, who went to the residence of the accused, but was informed that he had been out of town since Monday.

Major Wright was Treasurer of Suffolk his retirement from the office there were rumers that his dealings had not been strictly correct. The Town Council had an investigation made of his transactions, the examination resulting in finding an apparent shortage of $3,000. As the evidence as to certain portions of said amount was not altogether positive, a compromise settlement was made between the town and Mr. Wright, the latter paying $6,400 in settlement of the town's claims against him. The amount now involved is between $5,000 and $6,000.

The prisoners were brought to jail early this morning, and were given a hearing before 'Squice Osborne Wilson to-day. Halterman, the assaulted man, was able to attend, but was the most unsightly specimen of manhood seen on our streets for many a day, his face being pounded, cut, and bruised until his most intimate friend would not have recognized him.

In the investigation it came out that only one of the brothers was implicated in the assault. Halterman was working the road, when Snyder came along, and, after a brief quarrel, announced his purpose to settle an old grudge. The Justice decided that Snyder had gotten 320 worth of satisfaction out of Halterman, and fixed the fine at that amount.

ST. JOSEPH, MO., May 13.—At 3 o'clock this morning the roll was called in the Republican State Convention on delegates this morning the roll was called in the Republican State Convention on delegates at large, there being six names before the convention, with three to be selected, Chauncey I. Filley, of St. Louis, having been unanimously chosen. The first bailot resulted in the election of Major William Warner, of Kamasa City; N. C. Niedringhaus, of St. Louis, withdrawing in his favor. Warner received 4c? out of 65 votes cast. The next contest was between R. C. Kerens and F. G. Niedringhaus, of St. Louis, Bitter opposition to Kerens made itself manifest in the voting. He failed to receive any Sing like the vote given Warner, the total being 222 for Kerens to 684 for Niedringhaus. Niedringhaus's election was made unanimous.

Colonel Eittinger, of St. Joseph, withdrew his name, and urged his friends to vote for Kerens, but they did not save that gentleman from defeat.

On the third bailot John H. Bothwell, of Sedalla, was made fourth delegate at large to St. Louis.

The following alternates at large were elected by acclamation: Louis Benke, Chariton; James T. Monroe, Lacleds; Leon Jordan, Jackson; John Farmer, St. Louis. The latter two are colored. The last and crowning act of the convention, immediately before adjournment at 4:29 this morning, was the adoption of a motion instructing delegates to the national convention to elect Chauncey 1. Filley a member of the National Committee.

THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1326, at 5:30 o'clock P. M., the above-mentioned RESIDENCE, built about two years ago by the present owner, and no expense spared to make it complete in all its appointments. The residence occupies a frontage of 42 feet, the front being entirely of dreased brownstone, much of which is handsomely carved; buy windows, balcony, etc. The interior is finished in nardwood, and the upper floors reached by a massive oak winding stairway. The entire premises are heated by steam from a furnace in the basement, and wired for electric-light, and all lixtures for lighting are of the latest and best patterns, and can be used either for gas or electric-lighting. Wire screens for all doors and windows: electric-bells and speaking-tubes connect all portions of the house. All rooms are furnished with hardwood mantels of the very latest design, and handsomely cuved, and fireplace fixtures to match.

There are eight chambers (besides linen and trunk-rooms), all furnished with closets and stationary stands, etc. Saloon pariors finished in bird-eye maple, mirrors, etc. Immediately in rear of the pariors is an octagon dining-room, and adjoining the dining-room is the breakfast-room on one side, and conservatory on the other; pantry, etc., adjoining. In the basement, which is concreted throughout, are numerous bins for fuel, besides wine-room, etc.; and on the second floor large linen-rooms, two baths, etc.

The sanitary arrangement of the property is perfect, and nothing but the most modern fixtures have been used. Closets and washstands on every floor.

The kitchen is fitted up to correspond with the remainder of the house, and there are ample accommodations for servants.

The conservatory is concreted and heated with steam. The entire house, with the exception of the servants' apart-ments, has been frescoed by a first-class with the exception of the servants apartments, has been frescoed by a first-class artist.

The stable—ample accommodations for five horses and six carriages—is separated from the main lot by an alley 29 feet wide, paved with granite-spalls, and is a two-story brick structure, concreted on main floor, and has all necessary arrangements and conveniences.

It can be truly said of this property that it must be seen to be appreciated, and it is seldom that such a complete residence is offered for sale.

The entire property has a front of 80 feet on the south line of Frankin street, and it is proposed to offer the same either as a whole or the residence with forty-five feet, which will leave ample room on both sides, and make it entirely detached; and, in that event, the thirty-five feet on the east of the residence will be offered separately.

The premises will be open for inspection from Monday, the lith instant, to the day of sale, between the hours of 11 and 2 o'clock, and ample opportunity given for through examination.

TERMS: Announced at sale, and will be liberal.

EDITORS DISPATCH: GENTLEMEN.—
I regret to see my friends and brother druggists have my name among the number of those that see fit to meet "cut by cut." I never did believe, as a druggist, in that way of gaining the confidence or patronage of the medical profession, or the public. During the whole of my business careet, now nearly forty years, I believed in the open, fair, square, legitimate ways of doing business, no matter what others may see fit to do in order to get trade, and have the proud satisfaction of feeling that my course has had the approval of our people. I cannot now abandon principles of a lifetime.

Yours truly,
my 14-11. Yours truly, my 14-1t
